

Subdivision

United States Representatives in Congress for the State of Nebraska

Term:

2-year term

Partisan or NonPartisan Elections?

Partisan Election

When Election Held?

Primary and General

Nebraska has 3 Representatives in Congress

Qualifications of United States Nebraska Representative in Congress

1. Citizenship – United States citizen for at least 7 years prior to running for office.
2. Age – 25 years or older
3. Residence – Reside in the state in which they are Elected.

United States Representatives in Congress for the State of Nebraska:

Jeff Fortenberry – Represents District 1 which Platte County is part of. Jeff served on the Lincoln City Council from 1997 – 2001. He is on the Appropriations Committee which is responsible for the expenditures of the United States.

Political Party: Republican

Term Began: January 3, 2005 to the present time.

Up for Reelection in 2022.

Contact Information:

Washington, DC Office
1514 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

Phone # 202-225-4806

Don Bacon – Represents District 2 in Nebraska. Don served in the United States Air Force for 30 years and retired as a Brigadier General in 2014. Don is on the Agriculture and Armed Services Committees.

Political Party: Republican

First Term Began: January 3, 2017 to the present time.

Up for Reelection in 2022.

Contact Information:

Washington, DC Office
1024 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20510
Phone 202-225-4155

Nebraska office phone number 402-938-0300

Adrian Smith – Represents District 3 in Nebraska. Adrian is a Gering, Nebraska native whose family has called Nebraska home for 6 generations. His grandfather was the person who introduced Adrian to politics. Adrian was Nebraska Legislature 48th District Representative from 1999 – 2007.

Political Party: Republican

Term Began: January 3, 2007 to the present time.

Up for Reelection in 2022.

Contact Information:

Washington, DC Office
502 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

Phone # 202-225-0207